They are starting a mass movement.

Everybody loves our editor.

Yep, first ten chapters for tomorrow.

No wonder our class doesn't have any money.

Government gives you that kind of feeling.

Study! Study! Study! They will tell you that for the next three years.

Boys are so nosy these days.

What's the matter? Don't you believe her?

Now Algebra isn't that funny.

What? No smile today?

He takes after his father!

You just have to relax for this.

One more game of musical chairs. Then we have got to study!

Nothing can disturb one so deep in concentration.

Follow the leader.

Don't worry girls. It's only King Kong.

A friendly freshman.

Our group had 21% fewer cavities.

There are some in every class!

It's P-E-R-R-Y.

It's so hard to concentrate on music.

Can't keep those.

Seniors out.

How slow can you be?

Tell us about it.

Styles change fast.

Pat, don't look now but. . .

Oh! To be tough!

Who's shy?

Kingsley, no!

Santa's helpers.

That after-school Shamble.

The Junior Varsity football squad put in a heavy season this fall; playing a schedule of nine games they proved themselves worthy of their T.H.S. jerseys by finishing with a won lost record of 7-3. The products of Coach Gross and Coach Chatters, these boys will provide the body of next years and the following years varsity squads.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The graduate class of 1965 would like to express their sincere gratitude to Mr. Charles Gross. As advisor through the past three years, he has instilled in our class a SPIRIT of cooperation and offered us fine leadership. He has helped to make the Class of 1965 the best to ever graduate from T. H. S. Special thanks also go to Mrs. Charles Gross who added her ingenuity and talent to our efforts. We would like to thank both for the giving of their time to our class.

We on the annual staff wish to extend our appreciation to Miss Minton for her help and advisory abilities on the Senior Echoes. Our experiences on the staff will never be forgotten.

To Mr. Wayne Reganall goes our gratitude for his guidance through our first year of new experiences and adjustments.
